

DOGWOOF PICTURES

Issue 4

Welcome to the fourth edition of the Dogwoof Pictures newsletter. As editions go by, we try to give you more news on developments at Dogwoof Pictures. In addition we bring you up to date with news from the world of film. Enjoy and let us know if you would like any features covered such as Film Financing etc

DON'T MOVE ACQUISITION

Dogwoof Pictures has announced the acquisition of all UK rights for the Italian film DON'T MOVE (Non Ti Muovere), starring Penelope Cruz, to be released in selected cities across the country on March the 18th 2005 (tbc).

DON'T MOVE (Non ti muovere) is an award-winning Italian drama that was selected by the Cannes film festival under Un Certain Regard. It is based on the novel by Margaret Mazzantini, and tells the story of Italia (Cruz), a destitute woman who becomes involved with an upper-crust physician (Castellitto). It is a powerful film whose sharp images will remain with you long after the lights come on.

DON'T MOVE is directed by first time director Sergio Castellitto. It's leading cast, Castellitto and Penélope Cruz both won the Donatello for Best Actor/Actress. Cruz's performance is said to be the best of her career by most critics, and she has been nominated for Best Actress at the European Film Awards.

RAINDANCE FILM FESTIVAL

Or Not the London Film Festival. Smaller but more focussed festival, concentrating on smaller and more obscure films, and showing many films that are without UK Distributors. This year it was especially relevant to us at Dogwoof Pictures, as one of our recent acquisitions "Dias de Futbol "(Football Days) will be screening. For further information goto:

<http://www.raindance.co.uk/>

LONDON FILM FESTIVAL

October brings the end of the Baseball season in the USA and the London Film Festival to the UK. This year they are improving their services to Distributors which is welcome news for us, and are offering a wide selection of movies from the UK, Europe and world wide. Visit their web site for more details, and we will bring you an update on the best films from the festival next month.

<http://www.lff.org.uk/>

NEW RELEASES

This months's featured film is: Old Boy

http://www.bbc.co.uk/films/2004/09/20/old_boy_2004_review.shtml

Thriller (2004) 120mins (with subtitles) Korea
Director: Park Chan-Wook
Starring: Choi Choi, Yoo Ji-tae, Gang Hye-jung

Like Shakespeare's Titus Andronicus with chopsticks, this Korean thriller is a modern Asian answer to the Elizabethan revenge tragedy. Full of insanely grand passions, bloodthirsty violence and jet black comedy, it's a sadistic masterpiece that confirms Korea's current status as producer of some of the world's most exciting cinema. Choi Min-sik (Chihwaseon and Shiri) stars as kidnap victim Dae-su, who's locked up for 15 years by an anonymous enemy. Escaping, he vows to get his revenge.

COMING SOON

Watch for these films coming to a cinema near you!

Reconstruction (<http://www.dfi.dk/dfi/english/featurefilms/11020.htm>)

For a complete list of movies coming soon to cinemas, visit:
<http://www.bbc.co.uk/films/listings/>

Please let us know what you think of our newsletter! We're always looking for comments and suggestions from our readers and the features we're providing.
Just use the Feedback Form located at:
<http://www.dogwoofpictures.com/contactus.php>

LINKS

Finally, some useful web sites that you may or may not know:

1) http://www.bbc.co.uk/films/archive.shtml?film_reviews

2) <http://www.lff.org.uk/>

3) <http://www.afma.com/>

Thank you for your attention,

Anna Godas

Customer Service Executive
Dogwoof Pictures Ltd.

'one of the leading UK film distribution companies, specialising in foreign language films'

=====

Unsubscribe at any time:

<http://www.dogwoofpictures.com/subscription.html>

© 2004 Dogwoof Pictures. All rights reserved.